

First Reading: Gospel of Mary 4:1-5:3

When the BLESSED ONE had said this, he greeted them all. "Peace be with you!" he said. Acquire my peace within yourselves!
Be on your guard so that no one deceives you by saying, 'Look over here!' or 'Look over there!'
For the seed of true humanity exists within you.
Follow it! Those who search for it will find it.
Go then, preach the good news of the domain.
Do not lay down any rule beyond what I ordained for you, nor promulgate law like the lawgiver, or else it will dominate you."
After he said these things, he left them.
But they were distressed greatly.
"How are we going to go out to the rest of the world to preach the good news about the domain of the seed of true humanity?" they said. "If they didn't spare him, how will they spare us?"

Second Reading: Gospel of Mary 5:4-7:6

Then Mary stood up.
She greeted them all and addressed her brothers:
"Do not weep and be distressed no let your hearts be irresolute.
For his grace will be with you all and will shelter you.
Rather we should praise his greatness, for he has joined us together and made us true human beings."
When Mary said these things, she turned their minds toward the Good, and they began to ask about the words of the Saviour.
Peter said to Mary, "Sister, we know that the Saviour loved you more than any other woman. Tell us the words of the Saviour that you know, but which we haven't heard."
Mary responded, "I will report to you as much as I remember that you don't know."
And she began to speak these words to them.
She said, "I saw the Master in a vision and I said to him, 'Master, I saw you today in a vision.'
He said to me, "Congratulations to you for not wavering at seeing me.
For where the mind is, there is the treasure.
I said to him, "Master, how does a person who sees a vision see it—with the soul or with the spirit?"
The Saviour answered,
"The visionary does not see with the soul or with the spirit, but with the mind which exists between these two—that is what sees the vision..."

Gospel Reading: Gospel of Mary 10:1-14

Andrew said, "Brothers and sisters, what is your opinion of what was just said?
I for one don't believe that the Saviour said these things, because these opinions seem to be different from his thought."
After reflecting on these matters, Peter said, "Has the Saviour spoken secretly to a woman and not openly so that we would all hear?
Surely he did not wish to indicate that she is more worthy than we are?"
Then Mary wept and said to Peter,
"Peter, my brother, what are you imagining about this?
Do you think that I have made all this up secretly by myself or that I am telling lies about the Saviour?"
Levi said to Peter,
"Peter, you have a constant inclination to anger and you are always ready to give way to it. And even now you are doing exactly that by questioning the woman as if you're her adversary.
If the Saviour considered her to be worthy, who are you to disregard her?
For he knew her completely and loved her devotedly. Instead, we should be ashamed and, once we clothe ourselves with perfect humanity, we should do what we were commanded.
We should announce the good news as the Saviour ordered, and not be laying down any rules or making laws."
After he said these things, Levi left and began to announce the good news.
